July 13, 2018

Lindenwood University's J. Scheidegger Center for the Arts announces its 2018-19 touring series lineup, sponsored by World Wide Technology! This season is the 10th season since the $32 million performing arts center opened and consists of 10 touring shows, starting with The Temptations and The Four Tops on Sept. 8.

The other acts include The Fab Four (Sept. 22), Bill Engvall (Oct. 5), Postmodern Jukebox (Oct. 13), The Carpenters Christmas Tribute (Dec. 15), Celtic Woman: Best of Christmas (Dec. 21), Rick Springfield (Jan. 26), Patti LaBelle (Mar. 22), Patti LuPone (May 11), and Trace Adkins (May 18). In addition, the Scheidegger Center will also present Scotty McCreery (Sept. 14) and Waka Flocka Flame (Feb. 2) as part of its One Roar Series, new for 18-19. This student-centric series is also available to the public!

The box office is located in Lindenwood's J. Scheidegger Center for the Arts, at 2300 West Clay St., just west of First Capitol Drive in St. Charles.

“While every season is exciting, there is just something special about celebrating 10 years,” said Peter Colombatto, marketing director for the Scheidegger Center. “This season we will be offering 10 Performances - 12 if you include our exciting One Roar Series. I think patrons will immediately notice an even wider range of entertainment to choose from, something we've worked really hard on expanding each season.”

The Scheidegger Center enriches the local community with performances and serves as a living laboratory for the arts for the students at Lindenwood University. The campus provides a secure atmosphere, with fully accessible facilities and a family-friendly environment.

In addition to the professional shows, the J. Scheidegger Center features multiple student productions, including music series, dance concerts, theatrical performances, art exhibits, and fashion shows, as well as several community events throughout each season.
