ONLINE MFA IN WRITING PROGRAM RANKED SECOND IN US BY ONLINEU.ORG

October 24, 2018

OnlineU.org recently named the Lindenwood University Online Master of Fine Arts in Writing program second among the most affordable MFA program in the United States.

The website ranked schools based on methodology that factored in available degrees, tuition rates, and acceptance rates. OnlineU obtained data from the school websites and the National Center for Education Statistics, which the site says is the “primary governmental entity for gathering and presenting data related to education.”
