MORE THAN 1,350 PARTICIPATE IN SPRING COMMENCEMENT

May 17, 2019

Lindenwood University's spring Commencement ceremonies on Friday and Saturday, May 10 and 11, saw more than 1,350 graduates cross the stage at the St. Charles Family Arena as thousands of their friends and family watched from the audience.

Three ceremonies were held, including one for graduate students at 7 p.m. on May 10 and two for undergraduate students at 10 a.m. and 3 p.m. on May 11. Participants included graduates from Lindenwood's traditional, evening, and online programs.

Saturday's ceremonies were divided by school with Education, Health Sciences, Humanities, and Sciences in the morning and the School of Accelerated Degree Programs and the Robert W. Plaster School of Business & Entrepreneurship in the afternoon.

Between the three ceremonies, 1,677 degrees were conferred, including those posted in March and May and those slated for posting in June and August.

Broadcasts of all three ceremonies were streamed live and are available for viewing at <https://www.lindenwood.edu/academics/graduation/streaming-social/>.
