FALL 2021 PLANS ANNOUNCED

March 23, 2021

Lindenwood University is planning for the Fall 2021 semester. As cases on campus and in the St. Charles community continue to decline and while vaccine rollout continues, the University is planning for the following.

- A return to the traditional academic calendar with Monday, August 23 as the first day of the semester, and a fall break scheduled October 4 and 5
- Returning to traditional in-person class offerings, in addition to continuing the virtual option
- Scheidegger Center events & in-person student engagement activities
- Guest attendance at Lindenwood sporting events
- Returning to pre-coronavirus residence hall visitation and indoor dining policies

The University will continue to share additional information in advance of the fall semester through email communication, social media, and website updates.
