As you plan for the upcoming academic year, I'm reaching out to you to share the 2024-25 tuition and fees. We've worked hard to keep your educational costs well below other private universities in our region. This positive news comes as inflation has reached record highs and operating costs continue to increase.

The complete list of the 2024-25 Tuition and Fees is available now.

Lindenwood continues to combine highly respected academics in a learning environment that is dedicated to student success. In addition, the commitment made by you and your support system to pursue a Lindenwood degree is commendable, and our teams are here to assist you and ensure that your investment is meaningful.

Please review our frequently asked questions below for more information. Thank you for being part of the Lindenwood community. Go Lions!

Sincerely,

John Porter
