Two New Athletic Organizations
Introduced at Lindenwood College

Lindenwood College in St. Charles has introduced two new sports organizations to its athletic department.

The 'Lion's Pride' organization is a booster club which will promote inter-collegiate athletics. The new club is open to anyone interested in supporting Lindenwood College athletics. According to Marilyn Morris, athletic director at Lindenwood, "the 'Lion's Pride' club would be an excellent organization for parents, students, area businesses or interested individuals." All club members will receive a Lindenwood athletic shirt and be seated in reserved sections at all sporting events. Membership fee for the 'Lion's Pride' club is $30 per year.

The 'L' (letter) Club is a campus organization for all Lindenwood College athletes who participate in intercollegiate sports. The 'L' Club hopes to recognize and acknowledge Lindenwood athletes, promote school spirit and reward its members for their participation in intercollegiate sports. Awards will be presented annually to each 'L' Club member at the Lindenwood College athletic banquet. The club requires no membership fee.

For additional information concerning the two clubs, or to obtain a 'Lion's Pride' Club application, contact Marilyn Morris, athletic director at Lindenwood College, 946-6912, extension 353.
