Kiwanis Club Nativity Scene
Displayed at Lindenwood

A life-size nativity scene valued at $5,000 has been donated for display at Lindenwood College as a community gift this holiday season by the St. Charles Kiwanis Club.

On display now through the Christmas holiday, the nativity scene can be viewed at the First Capitol Dr. and Kingshighway corner on the Lindenwood campus. The nativity scene will be stored by the college and displayed on the campus each Christmas season.

Kiwanis Club members who were influential in obtaining the holiday gift for the community were President-elect Paul Orf, Dan Nack and Henry J. Elmendorf, also a member of the Lindenwood College Board of Directors.

The Kiwanis Club gift joins the Salvation Army's Tree of Lights which also is on display at the Kingshighway and First Captitol Dr. intersection. Both displays are part of Lindenwood College's third Annual Christmas Walk, scheduled from 4-6 p.m. December 8.

Amidst a festively-decorated campus, the event will feature a variety of entertainment attractions for the entire family, including free presentations by the well-known Bob Kramer's Marionettes beginning at 4:20 p.m. in the Fine Arts Bldg.

Tours will depart from the Memorial Arts Bldg. every few minutes for stops at residence halls and campus facilities. Entertainment will be provided at scheduled stops by the college's Women's Ensemble, the St. Charles Immanuel Lutheran Church's Bell Ringers Choir, the Lindenwood College Brass Quartet, the Madrigals and Kramer's Marionettes. Holiday storytelling, a mime, a visit from Santa Claus and refreshments also will be a part of the Annual Christmas Walk. The event is free to the community, and free parking is provided in campus lots.

For further information on the December 8 event, contact Lynne Landholt, chairperson of the Christmas Walk, at the Lindenwood College Development Office, 946-6912, extension #337.
