New Lindenwood College Coaches Ready For Debut

September 7, 1990 St. Charles, Mo.--At Lindenwood College, some new coaches have been appointed in existing sports and in some first year programs. These coaches are the newsmakers of Lindenwood College:

Nick Petrillo has been appointed as the baseball coach at Lindenwood College MO. Petrillo is also an assistant football coach in charge of the defensive backfield, and physical education instructor. He succeeds Art Siebels who will devote his time as Associate Athletic Director and men's basketball coach.

Lawrence Kuberski has been named as the men's junior varsity soccer coach at Lindenwood College MO. Kuberski will coach the first year junior varsity team into competition this fall.

Steve Stark has been named the women's volleyball coach for Lindenwood College MO. Stark will take the club team over and prepare them to compete on the collegiate level for the fall.

Don Frazier has been appointed as the wrestling coach at Lindenwood College MO. Frazier will bring the team into its first collegiate year this winter.

Robert Westling has been appointed as the head women's softball coach at Lindenwood College MO. Westling, who also serves as Director of Security at Lindenwood, will coach the Lady Lion's softball team in their second season of collegiate play.

Steve Crotz will take over as head women's basketball coach at Lindenwood College MO. Crotz left Brentwood High School MO, with a 210-50 career record to come to Lindenwood's basketball program. He is also an admissions counselor and physical education instructor at Lindenwood. He succeeds Ed Harris who has become an assistant principal at Parkway East High School MO.

Lindenwood College, founded in 1827, is an independent liberal arts college offering undergraduate and graduate degrees in day, evening and accelerated programs. The college's athletic program includes 13 varsity sports for men and women.
