FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

September 9, 1974

St. Charles, Missouri -- The Lindenwood Colleges will be the site of the forthcoming meetings of the Metro-West Council of the Missouri Association for Children with Learning Disabilities. The first meeting of this group will be on the college campus in Roemer Hall -- Room 313, on Thursday, September 12, from 7:30 to 10:30 p.m., with meetings following on the second Thursday of each month in the same place.

According to its newly elected president, Mrs. Jackie King, the Association is a group of parents and professional people who are interested in the learning disabilities of normal or potentially normal children who have problems of a visual, conceptual, or coordinative nature. The group meets to share new information on the subject through guest speakers and reports by members.

For information about the group, Mrs. King may be contacted at 724-1861 in St. Charles.
