FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

November 8, 1974

At a meeting of the Statewide Consortium of Colleges and Universities in Columbia, Thursday, November 7, Dr. Howard A. Barnett, Vice President and Dean of the Faculty at The Lindenwood Colleges, was elected to the Executive Board of the Forum on Community Concern. The Forum is a cooperative program to provide educational resources for community leadership through funds provided under Title I of Health, Education and Welfare department. The Executive Board has five members, one from each geographical region of the state.

The Executive Board will be appointing an executive secretary and administering the 1975 program of the Forum. The participants in the Forum include fourteen colleges and universities. Through participation, Lindenwood is enabled to bring educational services to St. Charles city and county government and civic leaders.

The 1975 project for Lindenwood will be a leadership training program in areas of planning and development. Representatives of the Citizens Advisory Group, St. Charles City Planning and Zoning Commission, and St. Charles County Planning and Zoning Commission have met with the Lindenwood staff to determine needs and program.
