FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

February 21, 1975

"Modern music enthusiasts will thrill to the rich sounds of the Lindenwood Faculty Woodwind Quintet in the performance of selected contemporary compositions on Sunday, March 2," declared Dr. Kenneth Greenlaw, Chairman of The Lindenwood Colleges' Music Department.

Five members of the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra, who are also members of the Lindenwood Colleges' music faculty will perform works by Schuller, Pierne, Reicha, Haydn, and Delaney.

The Woodwind Quintet includes Jacob Berg, principal flutist for the orchestra; Richard Woodhams, now in his 7th season with the Symphony; Robert Coleman, the orchestra's assistant principal clarinetist; Robert Wisneskey, bassoonist with the orchestra since 1946; and Kenneth Schultz, French hornist with the symphony for the past seventeen seasons. Members of the Lindenwood faculty since 1970, these distinguished artists offer individual instruction to Lindenwood students and a limited number of advanced students from the St. Charles community, and are also featured in special faculty recitals such as this.

The Woodwind Quintet will perform on Sunday, March 2, at 8 p.m. in the Jelkyl Center for the Performing Arts on the Lindenwood Colleges' campus. Admission is free and the public is invited to attend.
