FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

March 10, 1975

Elwood L. Miller has been appointed Dean of Lindenwood Evening College, it was announced today by William C. Spencer, president of The Lindenwood Colleges in St. Charles.

Other appointments announced by Dr. Spencer include Mrs. Evan Emory as registrar of the colleges and Miss Mary Yonker as assistant to the president.

Dr. Miller joined Lindenwood in 1970 and became chairman of the business department and director of the Evening College when it was founded in 1972. Under his direction, the college has expanded from 120 students to its present enrollment of over 650.

Mrs. Emory, a Lindenwood graduate, has been serving as acting registrar since the retirement of Miss Lula Clayton Beale, and has been a member of the registrar's staff for 11 years. Miss Yonker has been secretary to Lindenwood presidents since 1947.

Dr. Miller holds a bachelor of science in commerce degree with honors from Southern Illinois University, master of science in commerce degree in accounting from St. Louis University, and a doctorate in business administration from St. Louis University. He is a certified public accountant, a member of the national business honor society, Beta Gamma Sigma, the American Institute of Accountants, American Accounting Association, and the Missouri Society of Accountants.

Mrs. Emory is a member of the St. Charles Lindenwood Alumnae Club and a charter member of the St. Charles Choral Society. Miss Yonker is a member of the St. Charles Business and Professional Women's Organization, the P.E.O., and a trustee of St. Charles Presbyterian Church.
