FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

April 11, 1975

Charles O. Hartman, visiting poet at The Lindenwood Colleges for the week of April 14 - 18, is a specialist in the poetry of popular song lyrics. His lectures and seminars, in addition to presentation of his own poetry, will include performances and discussion of the lyrics of Joni Mitchel and Bob Dylan.

"A song," says Hartman, "is the integration (not the mere combination) of words and music." The public lecture scheduled for 8 p.m. Tuesday, April 15, in Jelkyl Center for the Performing Arts at Lindenwood will deal with that idea. Members of the audience will receive copies of the lyrics of Joni Mitchell's "Michael from Mountains" and Bob Dylan's "Don't Think Twice, It's All Right" to enable them to follow the discussion.

Hartman's schedule of programs open to the public include:
Monday, April 14, a Poetry Reading at 3:30 pm in Butler Library
a Seminar at 6:30 in Young Science Hall Lounge
Tuesday, April 15, a Public Lecture: "Music and Poetry" 8 p.m. Jelkyl Center
Thursday, April 17, Readings and Songs at 1:20 p.m. in Butler Library
Friday, April 18, Seminar and Conferences at 1:30 p.m. Young Science Hall Lounge

The public is invited and there is no admission charge. Mr. Hartman's residence is sponsored by the Missouri State Council on the Arts and Lindenwood.
