

THE annual Washington birthday concert at Lindenwood occurred Friday night last before a large and appreciative audience. There were 19 pieces on the program and altogether the concert was one that the young ladies might feel proud of. The young ladies taking part were Misses Van Court, Willard, Baer, Blair, Bode, Bruere, Pollock, Stonebraker, Sharum, McNaughton, Fisser, McGuigan, Chrysup, Peters, Nolan, Reinhard, Moore, Wiebusch, Nolan, Lohmeyer, and Wright. Prof. Campbell is at the head of the musical department of Lindenwood and was manager of the concert in the absence of Dr. Irwin.
